"Whatever you do for your family, your children, your husband, your wife, you do for God. All we do, our prayers, our work, our suffering, is for Jesus."

~Mother Teresa

It's a sobering thought to consider that all we do to and for our children and spouse – good and bad – is a reflection of how we treat Jesus every day. I have a card on my refrigerator with a saying from Mother Teresa that correlates with this thought: "At the end of the day, I need to ask myself only two things – What did I do to Jesus today? What did I do for Jesus today?" We can ask ourselves a variation of this: "What did I do to my family today? What did I do for my family today?" According to Mother Teresa, they are the same question.
