“Love begins by taking care of the closest ones – the ones at home.”

Home may be where the heart is, but the heart should be at home with our family. Love begins in the heart – a heart that is open, annihilated of self, ready and eager to serve, and full of God’s goodness. We must choose to love those closest to us, which means that love isn’t contingent upon how we feel about our spouse or children moment-to-moment. Instead, love is willing their good by acting in ways that will eternally benefit them.
