Quote of the Week - Humility - comes from the Latin humus, meaning "earth." We get a sense of it in the formula for distributing ashes on Ash Wednesday: "Remember, man, that thou art dust, and unto dust thou shalt return." In other words, humility is rooted in telling the truth—the truth about ourselves and the truth about God. Humility is a feared virtue only when it is misunderstood. Christians who know that they are already perfectly loved and have a lasting home in their Father's heart do not need to be important, celebrated, or even noticed. And those who have been humbled will have forbearance and compassion for those who have not yet learned the painful lessons to be found in the purgatory of humility.

Thank You Notes

Thank you so much for all the help in making the Celebration for Father Reuter and Father Huber such a special day for the both of them. Your help did not go unnoticed.

Jammi Welter and Chanteil Becker.

We would like to thank everyone who sent cards, memorial money, Hospice donations and prayers to us at the time of Jane's mom passing away. It meant a lot to us that so many of the softball team, parents, our friends and family made the trip to Sherrill for the wake service and the funeral. We will miss her, but she is free from her Dementia.

Thanks again, Leo and Jane Becker

I would like to thank those who sent birthday cards, gifts and flowers for my 80th birthday. Thanks so much and God bless you all!

Mary Fettkether

The Don Bosco Wrestling Camp is being held on Monday, July 31 and Tuesday, August 1 at 5:30 PM each night. UNI coach Doug Schwab will be the clinician on Monday and our very own Daryl Weber is coming back from Virginia on the Tuesday to give back to our program. For more information and the registration form, go to the Bosco System webpage at boscocatholic.org or call Tom Hogan at 319-290-4140.

Active US John Deere employees, full-time salaried and production employees and salaried employees in the part-time employee program, are eligible to participate in the John Deere Foundation Programs: Dollars for Doers and Matching Gifts. Dollars for Doers program is for volunteering hours and Matching Gifts program is for personal contributions to charitable organizations and qualifying tax-exempt schools. Both program gifts must be submitted through their Employee Self Service (ESS) under the Power for Good program. For the complete letter, please go to the www.boscocatholic.org website. Under the Advancement-Alumni tab, click on the ways to support us, and the complete letter is available to view. For contributions questions, please contact your John Deere HR department.

The Bosco Catholic School System (BCSS) is in the process of seeing who is willing to serve on the Foundation Committee who will eventually hire and work with the Foundation Director. This committee will be an integral part in the future of BCSS. For more information go to www.boscocatholic.org to find the job descriptions for the Foundation Committee Members, Foundation Director, and Operating Principles for Development Office and Foundation Committee. When at the website click on Advancement-Alumni on the left and then click on Development Office. We are looking for people who have one or more of the following skill sets: organizational, recruiting, marketing, analytical, communication, and ability to form relationships. We are seeking people from all ages and background to have a well-rounded diverse committee that will continue to move BCSS forward for many years to come!

Please forward along to others who you think would be good for this. Any questions feel free to email or call Casey Redmond, Principal at 319-296-1692 ext. 1102.
