Not only in October, but throughout each day of every month of the year, we are called to cherish, defend, and protect those who are most vulnerable, not only from the very beginning of life until its end, but each moment in between. Life and Dignity of the Human Person may only be one, though it is the foundation of all the principles of the Catholic Social Teachings. Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Dubuque is committed to respecting the life of every person and shining God's grace and mercy on all, especially the most poor and vulnerable.
