

St. Joseph Harvest Breakfast

I would like to personally thank the Confirmation Class of 2019 for their help in carrying and taking down tables for the Silent Auction along with setting up the dining room place settings for the breakfast. A huge thank you to Mary Weber, Sandy Etringer, Joan Johannes, Janet Schaefer, and Ed Weber for their help with the Silent Auction. Thanks to the bake sale workers and the many families that donated money and baked goods for the sale. Our profits were $730.00. Our thanks for all the great donations of cash, gift basket items, gift cards, and homemade crafts for the silent auction. The profit from the Silent Auction was $2528.00 Winner of the Children's Halloween door prize was Leah Knepper. Lastly a huge thank you to Michelle Stroh and the parishioners who helped to prepare and serve the delicious breakfast or donated money to defray the cost of the breakfast. With the support of those attending and the parish community, our Harvest Breakfast was a great success! Marion Peters Harvestfest 2018 is complete. – Just wanted to thank everyone for making Harvestfest 2018 a success. We served 913, just a few short of last year, but what a beautiful day we had. We would like to thank everyone that worked and there were a few people that worked a double shift (that did not go unnoticed), thank you to those who baked, made crafts and anything else to make Harvestfest as successful as it was. We do have a survey paper in the back of church to fill out if you wish to give us feedback on how we did or you can email me schaes4@aol.com if it is easier. Please have your feedback in to us by November 11th in the box we have marked.

We welcome Lynette Delagardelle as our newest committee member for co-chair for Harvestfest. This now fills our open spots for all committees, we appreciate those who stepped forward this year to fill our vacancies. Thank you to those who have been on the committees in the past, we know it takes a team to make everything run smoothly.

Harvestfest wrap up meeting Wednesday, November 7th at 6:30 in the Heritage Room

Thank you to all who attended, donated, volunteered, and/or purchased items for our annual Harvestfest!
